STATE UNIVERSITY SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Two Teams Which Have Never Faced the Longhorns Will Meet Them This Season.

(By Associated Press)
Austin, Texas, Sept. 25.—The University of Texas meets for the first time this season Southern Methodist University of Dallas and the Oklahoma A. and M. College; the other teams are old opponents. According to the schedule arranged by Director Belmont of the university, six of the games will be played at Austin; the game with Oklahoma A. and M. College will be played at San Antonio, this city being visited for the first time in a number of years by a Texas football team. The University of Oklahoma game, as usual, will be played at Dallas. The schedule follows:

Southern Methodist University, September 26, Austin.
Rice Institute, October 7, Austin.
Oklahoma A. and M. College, October 14, San Antonio.
University of Oklahoma, October 21, Dallas.
Baylor University, October 28, Austin.
University of Missouri, November 4, Columbia, Mo.
University of Arkansas, November 14, Austin.
Southwestern University, November

21, Austin.
Texas A. and M. College, November 30 (Thanksgiving Day), Austin.
Each year the annual contest between Texas and University of Oklahoma has more and more drawing power, probably 15,000 people witnessing the 1915 game. It is played on the State Fair grounds at Dallas and is one of the most attractive features of this great exhibit of Texas products and prowess. The University of Missouri, an ancient and honorable rival, will be met at the home of the former, Columbia, Mo. For the six games scheduled at Austin interest naturally centers around the contest between Texas A. and M. College and the University. Last year games with this institution were resumed after athletic relations had been broken off for a period of three years. The splendid young athletes at College Station defeated the University boys by an emphatic score of 13 to 0. Conditions this year are almost the reverse of what they were in 1915, when the season turned out rather badly for Texas University, with three lost games—one to Texas A. and M. College, one to Oklahoma and one to Notre Dame.

NOTICE.

Athletic club members or those that have been members: If you are interested in either gymnasium or field athletics be at the Young Men's Club rooms tonight at 8 o'clock. Important meeting.
